This booklet is designed for upper beginner Indonesian students of English. It deals with grammar and vocabulary, focusing on the type of errors Indonesian students make when learning English (e.g. writing German rather than Germany because, in Indonesian, Germany is Jerman). For many, it is a review of what they know already (or think they know!) but, in all the units, the writer assumes students have ‘forgotten’ what they know or knew.

This booklet is best seen as part of an intensive 60 hour course, including presentations, more specific vocabulary, listening, group, pair work, and vocabulary games, with the aim that, at the end of the course, students will be more confident in expressing themselves in English and will express themselves more correctly in English with a broadened vocabulary.
